

REEL WORK LABOR FILM FESTIVAL PRESENTS
TOGETHER TO END SOLITARY

CRUEL AND UNUSUAL – THE STORY OF THE ANGOLA 3

3 Black men, over 113 years in solitary confinement torture in the USA framed for organizing against injustice inside Angola Prison in Louisiana. The film documents their decades-long struggle for justice and to build a national and international movement to end solitary confinement.

Sunday, April 22, 2018

2:00-4:30 PM

UCSC Media Theater

453 Kerr Rd, Santa Cruz, CA

*Please RSVP, see link on Facebook:

Cruel and Unusual-the Story of the Angola 3

*Free parking in Lot 126!

*Free refreshments will be provided!

Craig Haney, Ph.D. in Psychology, Juris Doctorate (JD), academic specialization: psychology and law. Expert witness in Angola 3's lawsuit in Louisiana; Ashker V. Brown in California; January 17, 2018 Canadian ban on federal indefinite solitary confinement; and numerous lawsuits on behalf of incarcerated people. UCSC Distinguished Professor of Psychology; UC Presidential Chair, 2015-2018; Co-Director, UC Criminal Justice & Health Consortium.

Marie Levin, African American woman, organizer, and minister; California Families Against Solitary Confinement, Essie Justice Group, NLGSF Prisoner Advocacy Network, Prisoner Hunger Strike Solidarity Coalition; owner of MOMM's Pastries, employer of formerly incarcerated people; sister of Sitawa Nantambu Jamaa, co-author of the Agreement to End Hostilities, and 1 of 4 Principle Negotiators for CA prisoners challenging conditions in California's solitary units and general prison population.

Co-hosts: UC Presidential Chair, CA Families Against Solitary Confinement, End Solitary Santa Cruz County

Co-sponsors: ACLU-NC, Santa Cruz County Chapter; NAACP SC County Branch #1071; Peace and Freedom Party SC County; Santa Cruz Barrios Unidos; Temple Beth El, Aptos; UC Santa Cruz Legal Studies Program; Veterans for Peace, Santa Cruz; Watsonville Brown Berets

Reel Work Labor Film Festival - Full schedule of events at reelwork.org